

Busan International Short Film Festival 2023

Rules & Regulations for Submission

International Competition

1. Organization

The Busan International Short Film Festival (hereinafter “BISFF”) is hosted by Busan International Short Film Festival Steering Committee.

2. Goals

The purpose of BISFF is to discover and introduce outstanding short films directed around the world. Moreover, BISFF aims to bring the world’s latest and hidden gem-like shorts in the spotlight. The 40th Busan International Short Film Festival will introduce and award various short films completed after 2022. Regulations are made for understanding and consultation in the entry between the festival and the person who submits the film to the festival.

3. Festival Introduction

The 40th Busan International Short Film Festival will take place around the end of April 2023 in Busan, Korea (exact dates to be announced).

BISFF is a qualifying festival for:

Academy Awards - Oscars® (Academy of Motion Pictures Arts & Sciences)

Premios Goya (Academia de las Artes y las Ciencias Cinematográficas de España)

Canadian Screen Awards / Prix Écrans Canadiens (Academy of Canadian Cinema & Television / Académie Canadienne du Cinéma et de la Télévision)

British Academy Film Awards - BAFTA (British Academy of Film and Television Arts)

4. Awards

- Grand Prix: 10,000,000KRW (approx. 7,000 USD) and trophy
- Excellence Award: 5,000,000KRW (approx. 3,500 USD) and trophy
- Jury Prize: 2,000,000KRW (approx. 1,400 USD) and trophy
- Audience Award: a prize and a trophy
- NETPAC Award (for one Asian film from either International or Korean Competitions): a prize and a certificate

※ Grand Prix will be eligible for consideration in the Animated Short Film or Live Action Short Film categories of the Academy Awards® without the standard theatrical run, provided the movies comply with the Academy rules.

6. Selection

- 1) The films for the International Competition section will be selected by the festival program team and the preliminary jury.
- 2) The list of selected films will be notified on February 24th, 2023 on the festival website www.bisff.org; entrants will be notified individually as well.
- 3) Once a film has been selected, it cannot be withdrawn from the selected program; all rights and responsibility are under the entrants to screen at BISFF 2023.
- 4) The program team may also select submitted films for BISFF 2023's non-competitive sections.

7. Publication Authorization

- 1) Excerpts from the submitted films which will be selected as finalists can be used for the festival publicity. The total duration of the film excerpts (EPK clips) is within 30 seconds.
- 2) All submitted materials can be used for publication on BISFF 2023's catalog, website, and social networks.

8. Screening Copies

- 1) The screening format should be DCP or MOV (ProRes 422). Non-English films must have burnt-in English subtitles. In case of other screening formats: screening may exceptionally be possible only upon agreement between entrants and BISFF.
- 2) All the screening copies of the selected films must arrive at the BISFF office no later than March 10th, 2023 (BISFF will not pay for the delivery). When you send materials by post, please make sure to mark all materials: "NO COMMERCIAL VALUE — FOR CULTURAL PURPOSE ONLY"
- 3) All the screening copies will be returned to the address which is indicated on the entry form within 4 weeks after the festival (BISFF will pay for the return courier).

9. Archive

- 1) The films will be archived in the form of DCP and MOV (ProRes 422), with the consent of the copyright holders, in order to screen the films for one year after the festival.
- 2) If the copyright holders do not agree, BISFF will not keep the film in its archive.

10. Screening after BISFF

- 1) BISFF has a right to hold additional screenings of the finalists and awarded films only within film events hosted by BISFF. In this case, BISFF will get permission from the copyright holders in advance.
- 2) Under the distribution agency agreement with the copyright holders, BISFF may distribute the films through online media after the festival.

11. Agreement

It is assumed that regulations are in force once the copyright holders (directors, film distributors, agents, or producers) submit their films and register their films' information via the online submission platforms.

12. Others

- 1) Entrants must clear all copyrights related to the screening and will take full responsibility for any copyright issues that may occur. Also, if a dispute arises with an awarded film due to unresolved copyright issues, the festival has the right to cancel the award.
- 2) Due to force majeure, the festival schedule and screening method may be changed. In this case, BISFF will notify the entrants. If any changes occur after the selection of the competition is confirmed, BISFF shall inform the copyright holders or distributors of the contents for consultation.
- 3) The festival reserves all rights to decide upon matters under the agreement with the entrants which are not discussed in the above regulations.
